

Casual In-Home Caregiver – Dementia Support & Family Relief

Where Compassion Meets Purpose

About the Opportunity

A Kind Chapter Care Services Inc. is seeking a kind, patient, and dependable caregiver to provide part-time in-home support for an older adult living with dementia in Airdrie, Alberta.

The family currently provides most of the day-to-day care and is looking for additional support to help their loved one remain safe and comfortable at home while giving family members some well-deserved relief.

This is a small, flexible position for someone who enjoys building a trusting relationship with an older adult and supporting families through the challenges of dementia care.

Position Details

- Location: Airdrie, Alberta
- Hours: Up to 20 hours per month
- Schedule: Flexible, coordinated with the family
- Employment Type: Casual, part-time
- Pay: $17–$23 per hour, depending on experience
- Start Date: Within the next month or two

Safety, Dementia Support & Family Relief

- Provide attentive supervision and reassurance to help the client remain safe and comfortable at home.
- Be aware of dementia-related changes in memory, judgment, orientation, and behaviour that may affect safety.
- Follow the family's instructions and agreed-upon care plan, including any identified safety precautions.
- Help with daily activities and personal care as needed, while encouraging independence and respecting the client's dignity.
- Provide dependable support that allows family members to take breaks with greater peace of mind.

Qualifications

- Previous experience caring for older adults; dementia-care experience is strongly preferred.
- Comfortable providing occasional personal care and supervision.
- Patient, compassionate, reliable, and attentive to safety.
- Able to communicate effectively with family members and follow care instructions.
- First Aid and CPR certification preferred.
- Professional references required.
- Willing to complete an appropriate background check, including a vulnerable sector check where applicable.

The Right Fit

We are looking for someone who understands that dementia care is about more than assistance with daily tasks. It is about helping someone feel secure, respected, and valued while providing reassurance to the family.

If you are a dependable caregiver who enjoys making a meaningful difference in someone's day, we would love to hear from you.
